ARRANGEMENT ENTRIES

Novice - Pink Tags; Amateur - Yellow Tags; Advanced Amateur - White Tags

LET THE GAMES BEGIN

THE OLYMPIC TORCH Class 301
This is one of the greatest symbols of the Olympics, representing strength, endurance and power. Ignite your arrangement with a vertical design featuring red, yellow and orange dahlias.

PLAY BALL Class 302
Many Olympic sports require a variety of different type balls for play. Tee up a design incorporating pompon, and/or miniature ball and/or ball dahlias.

WRESTLING Class 303
The sport of wrestling goes back to the Olympics of Ancient Greece. In our modern games, Taekwondo and Judo have been added. To celebrate these disciplines as well as the 2020 Summer Games being hosted by Japan, create an arrangement in the Asian style.

ROWING Class 304
In 1936 the University of Washington rowing team took the gold at the Berlin Summer Olympics. In acknowledgement of this feat, "pull" together a horizontal arrangement incorporating water in your design.

EQUESTRIAN Class 305
This is the only Olympic sport that involves animals. Success demands complete harmony and trust between human and animal. Create an arrangement showing motion.

Juniors Only - Want to try your hand at an Arrangement? You'll find your designated area on the Arrangement Table

TRACK AND FIELD Class 306
Leonidas of Rhodes was the greatest runner of the Ancient Olympics and he ran naked and barefoot. Recognize today's athletes by including sport clothing or sports equipment in your arrangement. Create an arrangement of your own magical imagination - have fun

Unless otherwise specified, arrangements can have a maximum footprint of 24 inches square. Please refer to the new Federation Guidelines and scorecard for judging arrangements. Please direct any questions pertaining to Section 60, classes 301 - 306 to Arrangement Chair Marge Thatcher 425-672-8016. Please contact Marge before 8/29/20 to reserve space for your arrangement(s) in the show.
