GOOD MORNING

LUCKY CHARMS..... Class 301
The mascot of Lucky Charms is Lucky the Leprechaun, aka Sir Carms and L. C. Leprechaun. Leprechauns are about three feet high and prior to the 1900's wore red, not green. A design not exceeding one foot in any direction.

CAP'N CRUNCH..... Class 302
Cap'n Crunch commands the SS Guppy. Though he claims to be a captain, his uniform denotes the rank of a Commander. He was born on Crunch Island in the Sea of Milk off the coast of Ohio. A design using water.

TRIX..... Class 303
Trix is Kix with a lot more sugar. The silly rabbit mascot originated from the first television commercial for Trix. Rabbits are very prolific and one pair can theoretically (Fibonacci) produce 144 rabbits per year. A mass design.

PEBBLES..... Class 304
Pebbles is the daughter of Fred and Wilma Flintstone. Bam-Bam is the adopted son of the next-door neighbors, Barney and Betty Rubble. They are childhood best friends and the two eventually marry. A design utilizing two containers.

GRAPE-NUTS..... Class 305
Grape-Nuts was developed by C. W. Post and was originally processed through a coffee grinder. Despite the name, it contains neither grapes or nuts. If you've eaten the stuff, you'll understand... A design using stones.

FROOT LOOPS..... Class 306
Toucan Sam can locate concealed Froot Loops from great distances. Toucans' bills are colorful and can be longer than one-half the length of their bodies. Toucan Sam's bill is the multi colors of his cereal. Your own interpretation.
